Good Egg Award for catering service

FOOD provided at schools across Barking and Dagenham has been awarded a prestigious accolade.

The council's catering services, which provide hundreds of school meals a day, have been presented with a Good Egg Award from the leading animal welfare charity - Compassion in World Farming.

The certificate was awarded in recognition of the quality of the food provided by the catering team along with the council's commitment to use high quality meat and dairy produce and cage-free eggs.

Helen Jenner, the council's corporate director of children services, said: "We're delighted to confirm our commitment to serving high quality, healthy, ethically sourced food to the borough's children."

"This award shows we are dedicated to ensuring eggs and egg products are not sourced from hens in barren-battery cages or in enriched-cages and that we've written this into our sourcing policy."

The Good Egg Award, which was first launched in 2007, is one of Compassion in World Farming's flagship projects and has helped improve the living conditions of millions of hens each year.

Tracey Jones, from Compassion in World Farming, said: "It is great that Barking and Dagenham is taking animal welfare into consideration as part of its sourcing policy. Higher welfare produce isn't just the responsibility of large private corporations, but something that we can achieve at all levels."

WINDOW LEAP PAIR ESCAPE HOUSE BLAZE

By Paul Peterson

barking@yellowad.co.uk

TWO people leapt from a first floor window to escape a fire in their home on Wednesday morning.

They were among a group of 11 people who fled from the house in Bastable Avenue, Barking, after a fire swept through the property, which contains a number of flats, shortly before 5am.

Four fire engines and 21 fire-fighters from the local area were sent in to deal with the blaze.

Station manager Bill Dunn, who attended the incident, said: "This property has been extensively converted and had a very complex lay out which made the fire a very challenging incident for our crews. There was also evidence of hoarding in some of the rooms inside."

Fire fighters carried out a thorough search of the property to make sure there was nobody left inside.

One man who jumped from the first floor suffered a foot injury and was treated by paramedics.

The London Ambulance Service also treated a woman for shock and burns to her hand, while a man was treated for cuts to his foot and seven people were treated for the effects of smoke inhalation.

Mr Dunn added: "The crews worked extremely hard though and did an excellent job preventing the fire from spreading further into the property's loft space and also into neighbouring homes."

The blaze, which left the ground and first floors of the property badly damaged, was brought under control by fire fighters by about 7am. The cause of the fire is now under investigation.

WIN! TICKETS TO SEE RAT PACK LIVE

WE have teamed up with the producers of concert show Rat Pack Live to give 10 lucky readers the chance of winning a pair of tickets to see the spectacular production at the Cliffs Pavilion.

Rat Pack Live will swagger into Southend on Saturday, June 1, with all the panache and attitude of Sammy Davis Jr, Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra
during their Vegas heyday.

The production, which starts at 7.30pm, features the sound of big band swing and boasts an incredible, all-star cast including Mark Halliday, who has performed as Dean Martin to critical acclaim both in the West End of London and in international touring productions.

With a spirit glass in one hand and a microphone in the other, he captures Martin's polished irreverence on beautif-fully-performed songs like 'Ain't That a Kick in the Head',
'Mambo Italiano' and 'That's Amore'.

The evening's Frank Sinatra,
Stephen Rashbrook, has played
Ol' Blue Eyes at the Strand, Savoy and Adelphi Theatres in the West End of London and on UK, European and US tours, while Jim Whitley, who appears as Sammy Davis Jr, has toured extensively as both Sammy and Nat King Cole.

The former Manchester City international footballer has previously performed alongside Judy Carmichael at New York's famous Rainbow Rooms.

Together they combine
'swingsationally' in Rat Pack
Live, which features all the patter and razzamatazz of the Rat Pack's infamous live stage show, so prepare to experience the definition of cool.

For further information or tickets, which cost from £22.50

Blooming business ideas

STUDENTS at Barking and Dagenham College are turning their business ideas into reality. They were challenged to form their own groups and develop business plans to open shops at the college before pitching their ideas to senior members of staff in a Dragon's Den style competition. Reporter Paul Peterson spoke to student Charlie Makaveli, 29, from Parkhill Close, in Hornchurch, who now runs the Blooming Delicious florists after being named as a competition winner.

What was it like pitching your ideas to college staff?

It was nerve racking but fun. We all took on different roles such as project leader, marketing and finance and we all had the opportunity to put our points across in our presentation.

What made you pitch the idea for a florist shop?

I grew up in a house dominated by women and wanted to be a nurse or doctor or have a flower shop. After studying paediatric nursing I decided to have a go at floristry. The competition offered me a great opportunity to express myself through my studies and incorporate that into the shop.

What do you most love about floristry?

The creativity and the chance to work in a sector which most people wouldn't associate with men. It's fun, creative, you meet loads of interesting and diverse people and can really express yourself.

Is it difficult being a male in the industry?

Not really, some of the top florists in London are male and there are florists up and down the country owned by men too.

What's been your best seller so far?

Valentine's day was very successful. Every bit of stock was sold. We also plan to do something for the Prom season for school leavers. But you'll have to come into the shop to find out what it is.

What are your hopes for the future?

I hope to enter the corporate side of floristry - I love floral art. I enjoy floral designs for reception areas and boardrooms. I would really love to be able to provide flowers for the civic centre.

Man fined for fake robbery stab claim

A MAN who pretended to have been stabbed during a fake robbery has been fined.

The 24-year-old, from Romford, was found injured in Chadwell Heath High Road by a member of the public who called police on the afternoon of Friday, April 18.

He told police that he had been stabbed in the leg during a robbery in a nearby park and was taken to an east London hospital and treated for a stab wound to his thigh.

The man said he had spent the early afternoon in the park eating and drinking before being robbed by three people. He described the incident and the suspects in detail.

But police from Barking and Dagenham later proved that the robbery never happened.

The 24-year-old man then admitted that he had bought a small knife from a local store and stabbed himself in the thigh to win back his girlfriend after they had split up.

He was subsequently given a £100 Fixed Penalty Notice for wasting police time.

DS Nathan Lee said: "The police are here to help victims of crime and bring offenders before the courts. Anyone who makes a false allegation to police wasting our time and resources that could be well spent on genuine victim care will be dealt with robustly."

A theatrical view of politics

Oscar winner's MP grandfather inspired her to take to the stage

By Charles Thomson

basildon@yellowad.co.uk

OSCAR-winner Angela Lansbury was honoured by the Queen last month for her acting career and charity work, but few know her philanthropic outlook stems from her East End roots.

During a recent return to her old stomping ground of Poplar, the newly-appointed Dame paid tribute to a man who helped shape her world view – her grandfather, George Lansbury MP.

Bromley and Bow MP for 20 years, George was twice imprisoned for his political beliefs but went on to become Labour Party leader.

During a live interview in front of roughly 150 people in April, Dame Angela – who received her honour last Tuesday at Windsor Castle – reminisced about her grandad.

“We did come to Poplar a lot to see Grandad,” she said. “I was saturated with politics as a child. My sister and I used to copy politicians and we were fascinated by the whole process. I was able to take a lot from my grandfather, who was a great public speaker.”

It was George's oratory skill which inspired her to take up acting.

“It struck me as being theatrical,” she explained. “That was part and parcel of me wanting to be a public person, as far as being an actor was concerned.”

First elected in 1893 as Poor Law guardian for Poplar, where he reformed the workhouses.

Ten years later he was elected to Poplar Borough Council, where one of his first projects was to use a 100-acre farm in Laindon, now part of Basildon, Essex, to create work for unemployed Poplar residents.

First elected to parliament in 1910, George resigned in 1912 to join the campaign for women's suffrage. In 1913 he gave a speech at the Albert Hall advocating militant action, for which he was convicted of incitement and imprisoned.

Speaking at Spotlight, Dame Angela described watching a later speech at the Albert Hall.

“It was a stunning realisation that hit me,” she said. “the extraordinary ability he had to absolutely mesmerise the crowd in that building. It was the most thrilling event of my young life.”

In 1921 George led the Poplar Rates Rebellion, where councillors withheld precepts from London County Council and the Met Police, instead spending the cash on relief for poor people.

George and 29 other councillors were imprisoned but their defiance led to the introduction of the Local Authorities Financial Provisions Act, which equalised the poor relief burden across London.

Re-elected to Parliament in 1922, George served as Labour leader from 1932-1935 and remained an MP until his death in 1940, aged 80.

Dame Angela, now 88, credited her own staying power to her Lansbury genes.

She said: “With me it's a built-in thing – a tremendous stamina. He was like a man of steel. He was always on his feet. He walked everywhere and I'm the same way.”

Asked whether she would consider a career in politics, she joked: “I wouldn't mind being minister of the arts or something. That wouldn't have been a bad thing.”

She added: “I'm very unsophisticated when it comes to politics so I just stay out of it. I'm an actress. But I'm also a socialist.”

Concern grows for missing schoolboy

DETECTIVES are appealing for information about the disappearance of a 13-year-old schoolboy.

Danyal Arain, from Leyton, was last seen in the Queens Road area of Walthamstow, at 3.20pm last Wednesday and has not been using his mobile phone or using his usual social media channels.

Police said although Danyal has gone missing before it has never been for more than one night and investigating officers and his family are growing increasingly concerned for his welfare.

Danyal, who is known to frequent Waltham Forest and Haringey, is described as Asian, of medium build, 5ft 7ins to 5ft 10ins tall, with black hair.

He was wearing a Kelmscott School blazer at the time of his disappearance and a black Adidas jacket with blue stripes down the sleeve and a blue snap back hat.

It is believed he may have also been wearing jeans and blue Nike trainers.

Detectives are appealing for anyone who has seen Danyal or has any information about his whereabouts to call police on 101 or the Missing People charity on 116 000.

Crossrail tunnels unveiled

GIANT train tunnels for the multi billion pound Crossrail project were unveiled last week.

The huge underground caverns at Stepney Green – some of the largest mined caves ever constructed in Europe – were visited by journalists and photographers on Friday.

They also visited the nearby Pudding Mill Lane site in east London where Crossrail trains heading from Essex, Havering and Redbridge will first enter the central tunnels.

The Stepney Green caverns mark the spot where Crossrail train lines will split with one section going off towards Essex and the other one towards south east London.

Matthew White, surface director at Crossrail, welcomed the success of the project.

He said: "These latest images show how much progress is being made on Europe's biggest infrastructure project. Crossrail trains will take passengers right through central London making it quicker and easier to get to a whole range of destinations."

Mr White said that the project will 'transform' rail transport - increasing capacity by 10 per cent and bringing 1.5 million people to within 45 minutes of central London.

He added: "Crossrail will also provide a step change in public transport in Redbridge and Havering providing new trains, faster journeys and better stations including new lifts, longer platforms and some much improved station entrances and ticket halls."

The latest glimpse of the Stepney Green and Pudding Mill Lane sites come as a new report called upon local councils to ensure their communities benefit from the project.

The Crossrail as Catalyst report said councils, community groups and business must 'act now' if they want to boost regeneration activity before Crossrail opens in 2018.

The report was written by Future of London - the capital's leading housing, economic development and regeneration networks – after Redbridge Council called for more support for outer London boroughs that will get Crossrail stations such as Ilford.

The tunnels at the Pudding Mill Lane site take shape

Future of London director, Lisa Taylor, explained: "Realising the regeneration and development potential of the Crossrail project matters to London and we want to help stakeholders realise the opportunities while there's still time."

"The capital could achieve much more in terms of station area regeneration and its ripple effect on local economies and communities if greater consideration was given to the non-rail aspects of station development right from the outset."

Mr White said the benefits of Crossrail were being felt in Redbridge and Havering.

He added: "The better transport links it will bring are already encouraging investment, unlocking development opportunities and supporting local jobs and businesses."

TWO former Dagenham Girl Pipers are sure there cannot be many others who have been best friends for as long as they have – 70 years.

And they've never fallen out!

Patricia Harris-Quelch, 84, and Marguerite Marshall, 90, first met when they joined the pipers at the band's headquarters at Osborne House in the town. Pat, who now lives in Rainham, was just 14, and Marguerite was 20 when they met.

At the time the band was headed up by Reverend J W Graves.

Pat said: "When we first met at the band's headquarters we struck up a friendship straight away.

"I was quite excited as I had always wanted to play the pipes.

"You had to have a test to join the band. You ran through some of the instruments, and whatever you were best at, you ended up playing. I like pipe bands. The band is still going."

Pat said she and Marguerite travelled extensively when the Dagenham Girl Pipers put on shows in lavish venues. She said: "We met all the stars, including people like George Thornby, Petula Clarke and Laurel and Hardy. We played at the Albert Hall and the London Palladium."

The pair kept the friendship up throughout their time in the band, and it is still going strong. Pat said: "When you work together it is important to get on with your colleagues, so we all made a special effort, to make the experience more pleasant.

"Marguerite and I got on so well, we just continued the friendship long after we left the band in 1951.

"We still meet now, we will go out for lunch once every two weeks."

The pair are both widows now and Pat has three sons.

Marguerite celebrated her 90th birthday on Sunday with Pat and other friends and family. Marguerite said: "Pat and I became friends because we like the same things.

"We haven't ever argued.

"We now go out for a meal or on outings. Two years ago, we went to Jersey on holiday, we flew from Southend airport. We have also been to Spain quite a few times."

Marguerite travelled the world with the Dagenham Pipers Band during the Second World War.

She said: "Pat was a bit younger than me so she couldn't travel during the war. We went to entertain the troops. We visited the camps wherever the army or the navy were stationed, we went – to give the shows. I went to Sweden, Denmark, Norway, America, Canada and Holland."

Marguerite has also met the Royal Family. She said: "We went to Windsor Castle where we did a show for the Royal Family. We were introduced to the Queen Mother and King George VI and the-then Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret."

Special car for the special one

BOSS: Jose Mourinho with the Jag F-Type R Coupe

By Mike Torpey

THE first Jaguar F-TYPE R Coupe to be built for a UK customer has been presented to the company's new UK ambassador, Chelsea football manager Jose Mourinho.

Series production of the new performance model is now underway at Jaguar's Castle Bromwich manufacturing facility and the first car was presented to the self-styled Special One by two Jaguar manufacturing employees.

The coupe, which follows the convertible version launched last year, is billed as the most dynamically capable, performance-focused production Jaguar ever and is headlined by the R version.

Complete with a 550PS 5.0-litre V8 supercharged engine, the flagship model can scorch from 0-60mph in 4.0-seconds and on to a limited top speed of 186mph.

Highlights of Mourinho's car include Stratus grey metallic exterior paint, 20-inch Gyrodyne black and diamond turned wheels with red brake calipers, panoramic glass roof and a 12-speaker Meridian surround sound system.

The Portuguese coach said: "I am very proud to now own the new F-TYPE R Coupe. It was an honour to receive this spectacular sports car from the gentlemen responsible for building it and I would like to thank the Jaguar team at Castle Bromwich for producing such a wonderful car."

Two members of the Castle Bromwich manufacturing team were invited to present the car to Mourinho.

Steven Gaut was given the opportunity in recognition of his contribution at Castle Bromwich, and his support of local charities for whom he has raised over £60,000. He was joined in presenting the car by Plant Quality manager Gary Johnson.

The F-TYPE R Coupe joins a Jaguar product line-up which now features R or R-S-branded products across every nameplate in the model range.

And to mark the first deliveries to customers, the brand has launched a network of 20 specialist R Performance centres at selected UK dealerships.

Jaguar customers will be able to drive the cars on test routes designed by professional drivers and every R Performance centre will be equipped with iPads loaded with apps affording users access to technical information, performance data and interactive media covering every R model in the Jaguar range.

Os DOUBLE UP ON TRANMERE

Orient

Leyton Orient 2 Tranmere Rovers 0 By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient rounded off their regular league season home campaign with a convincing victory against relegation-threatened Rovers, with the in-form Kevin Lisbie and sub, Chris Dagnall adding to their impressive tallies.

Having won 4-0 up in Merseyside back in October, the Os were looking to complete another double and should have taken a fourth minute lead when Dean Cox cut in and forced Owain Fon-Williams into a fine diving save.

From then on the game almost descended into a end-of-season kickabout and the Os comfortably contained a side still desperately needing points.

But, the Os went close on 36 minutes when Shaun Batt left his marker trailing, but with only Fon-

Williams to beat, the striker panicked and fired into the side-netting. Batt, however, had a key role in the Os' 43rd minute opener when he chested down Scott Cuthbert's header from Cox's corner and Lisbie passed the ball into the gaping goal.

Tranmere almost levelled two minutes into the second-half, but from a Max Power flag-kick, Rovers were unable to take advantage of a wild Lisbie clearance and Ryan Lowe could only help the ball into Jones's grasp.

That was the closest a poor Tranmere side got to taking anything home and had Fon Williams to thank for keeping the score down with a series of fine saves to deny Lisbie, Moses Odubajo and Dean Cox.

But, the keeper gaffed on 76 minutes when his poor clearance only fell to Dagnall and with keeper way off his line, the sub netted with an incredible piece of skill from all of 35 yards.

Then, close to the end Cox nearly made it three with a searing drive, to leave a happy boss, Russell Slade saying: "It was another professional performance and a club record to have reached 83 points, it's a monumental effort from the lads."

"We started the game well and they had to change their formation but, importantly, we got our goal from a set-play just before half-time. Then Dagnall wraps it up with a fine finish. He's in good form, with three in four games."

Slade concluded: "It's important to go into the play-offs with a little bit of momentum. We have worked very hard this season and will be looking to progress to Wembley."

Rovers boss, John MacMahon moaned: "We were very sloppy and made some silly mistakes. We haven't dealt with these [sort of] things all season and that's why we are in the position we're in."

Goalscorer Lisbie added: "I'm back in the goals in the last home game, but the win is the most important thing and I'm glad we got it today. My goals target is always to beat the previous season's [tally], but more importantly we're in the play-offs."

Os left-back, Gary Sawyer, is looking forward to the play-offs: "It's the first time I will have been involved. Wembley is the one place you all want to play at and I'll do anything to get there. We are not bothered who we are playing as everyone has got there [to the play-offs] on their own merits. I genuinely believe we can beat anyone."

■ Orient travel to MK Dons this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).

Non-league round up by Brian Jeeves
GOALS from Jay Nash (2), Billy Johnson and Lewis Sparrow ensured that Great Wakering Rovers finally clinched the Essex Senior League title with a resounding 4-1 success at a depleted Basildon United. Greg Akpele grabbed a consolation for the Bees in front of an impressive Gardiners Close crowd of 216.

Elsewhere in the ESL there was an even bigger turn out at the Old Spotted Dog where Clapton completed an impressive campaign under the guidance of Chris Woods. On this occasion visitors FC Romania ran out 3-1 winners with 247 in attendance.

Both Enfield 1893 and Haringey Borough completed an excellent campaign with 3-0 victories. Enfield saw off Sawbridgeworth while Borough beat Takeley.

Tower Hamlets eased to a three goal win over Stansted and Eton Manor were also 3-0 winners, London Bari were their victims. There was a ding-dong battle at Lower Road where Hullbridge Sports edged out Bowers & Pitsea 3-2, while Rob O'Brien's tenth minute penalty was enough to see Barking home in a big derby at Cricklefield Stadium against Ilford.

It was a disappointing end to the season for our Skril Conference South clubs. Concord Rangers conceded two late goals from Adam Connolly and Ross Stearn as visitors Bath City ran out 2-0 winners at the Aspect Arena, while Chelmsford City went down by the same score at Weston-Super-Mare, Grubb and Ash scoring either side of half time for the hosts.

In the Ryman Premier Division there were celebrations for East Thurrock United who beat the drop with an entertaining 4-2 win over Bognor Regis Town.

A single goal from Chris Bourne was enough to give AFC Hornchurch the points against Metropolitan Police and clinch a play-off place, but there was little cheer for the region's other Premier clubs. Billericay Town were thrashed 5-0 at relegation haunted Wingate & Finchley and Canvey Island went down 2-0 against an impressive Wealdstone outfit.

Grays Athletic gave Maidstone United a mighty scare in front of a bumper 1,984 crowd but finally succumb by the odd goal in three.

Plenty of goals in the Ryman North. Aveley saw off Waltham Abbey by four goals to two, and there were wins for Maldon & Tiptree, 2-1 against Ware, and Heybridge Swifts, 6-1 over Redbridge. Piers Wixon and Danny Aldwinckle secured Tilbury a 2-1 derby triumph at Thurrock.

Burnham Ramblers fought out a goalless draw at Dereham Town and there was a point gained by Witham Town, 1-1 at Cheshunt. However, it was an afternoon to forget for Romford and Barking-side. Romford crashed 6-0 at VCD Athletic while Barking-side lost 5-0 at home to AFC Sudbury.

Waltham Forest went down 3-1 at home to Soham Town Rangers and Brentwood Town completed an indifferent day for out clubs, slipping to a 2-0 defeat at home to Harlow Town.

Rangers in cup final defeat

Dagenham Park Rangers 1 Grays Athletic 5 Essex Rosser Under 15s Cup Final

GRAYS Athletic came from behind to record a fine 5-1 victory over Dagenham Park Rangers to lift the Essex Rosser Under 15s cup for the second time in four seasons on Sunday.

Tommy Lyons handed Rangers a 15th-minute lead, but a leveller inside three minutes from skipper Freddie Burnell proved the perfect catalyst for Grays as a fine brace from Henry Faber, and further strikes from Alfie Bruno and Charlie Nolan, secured the silverware.

"We knew Dagenham would be a good side, but we responded well," said Grays boss Jon Burrell.

Dagenham Park Rangers: Kieran Miller, Humzah Sheikh, Daniel Parish, Tommy Lyons, Chris Covey, Ehijele Mohammed, Samuel Cahill, Tremayne Sobers, Nathan Capaloff-Harris, Ali Ahmadi, Michael Turner. Substitutes (repeated): Che Thomas, Solomon Asomah, Jordan Adesanyo, Matthew Stedman, Godfrey Kambaza.

Grays Athletic: Charlie Holmes, Harvey Brown, Charlie Webb, Kasey Cummings, George Green, Freddie Burrell, Henry Faber, Charlie Kerswell, Harry Callagher, Brandon Byrne, Charlie Nolan. Substitutes (repeated): Oakley Clarke, Alfie Bruno.

Rugby

WOODFORD'S Rugby Youth section ended the season on a high with three important Essex league victories at their Highams home ground on Sunday. The results confirm promotion for the Under 14's and Under 15's and a solid top third finish in Division 1 for the Under 16's.

The Under 14s had a convincing 22 - 0 win over Braintree. Whilst not having all the game their own way Woodford kept a clean sheet with some well organised defence. When the opportunities came Woodford's general support play enabled them to score and so seal promotion to Division 1 of the Essex leagues.

The Under 15s produced an emphatic 50-10 victory over local rivals Eton Manor and similarly gained promotion to Essex Division 1. Scoring 25 points in each half Woodford kept the pressure on their opposition throughout the game.

The Under 16s match was all about final league positions in Essex Division One. Braintree, who were above them in the table at the start of the match, put up a strong opposition in a hard fought affair. Woodford emerged victors in a 20-17 score line. The win saw Woodford advance further in the top half of the table in Division 1.

Charles Price, Youth Chairman, said "Many of these players have come through from our mini rugby section. It is pleasing to see all the hard work of the coaches, players and other volunteers paying off with this string of important successes".

Woodford develops young players to be the best they can be. All the age groups featured players who have played representative rugby for Essex. Some have gone on to train with Saracens and in the Under 16's Freddie Hatton has played for and captained England.

Woodford RFC welcomes players of all ages and abilities. The club will be further boosted by a major project to upgrade the drainage its main pitch during the summer. This will be a timely boost to activities planned to coincide with the World Cup to be held in England in 2015. Details on training, coaches and other activities are on the Woodford website, pitchero.com/clubs/woodford.
